

Update to Section 213.12
Model Penal Code: Sexual Assault and Related Offenses
(January 2, 2020)

The Reporters plan to remove the “roadmap” for Sections 213.12A-213.12J from Section 213.12A(4) and replace it with a freestanding Section 213.12 preceding Section 213.12A. The new Section is shown below.

SECTION 213.12. COLLATERAL CONSEQUENCES OF CONVICTION

A person’s obligation to register as a sex offender, associated duties, and other collateral consequences applicable specifically to sex offenders are defined, and their scope and implementation are delineated, as follows:

(1) The offender’s duty to register for law enforcement purposes is governed by Section 213.12A.

(2) Notification of the offender’s duty to register and associated duties is governed by Section 213.12B.

(3) The time of initial registration is governed by Section 213.12C.

(4) The information required upon registration is specified in Section 213.12D.

(5) The duty to keep registration current is specified in Section 213.12E.

(6) The duration of the registration requirement is specified in Section 213.12F.

(7) Penalties for failure to register are governed by Section 213.12G.

(8) Access to registry information is governed by Section 213.12H.

(9) Additional collateral consequences of conviction are governed by Section 213.12I.

(10) Standards and procedures for relief from the duty to register, associated duties, and additional collateral consequences applicable specifically to sex offenders are governed by Section 213.12J.